RIDES FAR FOR AUTISM RESEARCH

The Annual Cycling Event to Raise Funds for the Autism Science Foundation

When you team up with the ride, you join a strategic partnership that offers:

- Demonstrable corporate social responsibility.
- The chance to associate your brand with a respected charity—the Autism Science Foundation.
- An opportunity for the financial services community to come together in person—and around the globe through our virtual ride—to rally around an important cause.
- A unique chance for the financial community to build relationships.

ASF's Mission

- Fund scientific research.
- Encourage families to seek evidence-based treatments.
- Bring science directly into the community through events like the Autism TED talks.
- Bring a voice to children and families struggling with autism.

Your Impact on the Autism Science Foundation

Your sponsorship of the ride will have a significant impact on ASF's mission by funding research into:

- Causes of autism.
- Novel treatments for people of all ages.
- New tools to detect autism earlier.
- Improved services for people with autism.
